Report of the Librarian to the Trustees of the
LISBON PUBLIC LIBRARY

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN :

The circulation of books and periodicals for the year closing January 1st shows that the library is a busy place on Wednesdays and Saturdays.

Fiction	10,865
Periodicals	1,060
Biography	287
History	192
Travel.....	120
Nature books	107
Poetry and Drama	173
Essays	91
Fairy Tales.....	157
Other classes	847
Total	13,499

Three thousand, seven hundred and thirteen of these were juvenile.

Sixty-five books have been rebound.

New registrations, 78.

Eighty new books have been added by purchase.

Owing to the congested condition of our shelves it has been thought best to defer purchasing our usual large lot of books for midwinter until spring, when we expect to be in the new library with plenty of room.

Again we have received donations of periodicals from Mrs. O'Brien, Mrs. Oliver, Mrs. Payne. and the Methodist and Adventist Sunday schools. Scribners magazine has been substituted for Arts and Decorations, and Time for the Literary Digest.

Again we wish to call the attention of our citizens to the fine array of periodicals on our table :

A. L. A. Booklist, American Magazine, Atlantic. Bookman, Century, Child Life, Dearborn Independent, Foreign Affairs, Good Housekeeping, Granite Monthly, Independent, John Martin's Book, Ladies' Home Journal, League of Nations News, Library Bulletin, National Geographic, Our Dumb Animals, Outlook, Popular Mechanics, Readers' Guide, Review of Reviews, Scribners, St. Nicholas, The Studio, Time, Woman's Home Companion, World's Crisis, Zion's Herald.

The library staff keenly felt the removal by death of the faithful janitor, Moses K. Hennessey. His place has been filled by Edwin M. Clough.

The prospect of a beautiful new library building, soon to be finished, is almost too good to be true. The staff as well as the public most thoroughly appreciate this wonderful gift of our former townsman, Mr. Harry Chandler of California, in cooperation with Mr. H. B. Moulton.

Respectfully submitted,

NETTIE LOUISE KELSEA, Librarian.
